

MRS. STEVE ADAMS TO TAKE STAND FOR THE DEFENSE

SHE WILL GIVE THE LIE TO OR-CHARD'S TESTIMONY ABOUT HER HUSBAND.

SEVENTH DAY ON STAND

Of Man, Who, If His Story Proves True is the Arch Criminal of the Century.

Boise, June 12.—Mrs. Steve Adams whose husband is charged by Orchard with being an assistant to the arch criminal, gave the lie to Orchard today, and will be one of the chief witnesses for the defense. Orchard continued his story today under cross-examination. This is his seventh day on the stand.

Boise, Ida., June 12.—William Haywood, on trial here charged with complicity in the murder of Former Governor Steiengberg, sent the following message to the Western Federation of Miners, now in convention at Denver, Colo.: "Harry Orchard is the greatest liar of the twentieth century, as every man he has implicated in his confession stands ready to testify. I am determined to take the stand and show where he lied. There will be nothing to my case but an acquittal. A hung jury will not do. I demand complete vindication. If your convention had been six weeks later, I would be with you, for by that time I will be a free man."

The defense in the Haywood case continues its attack on the testimony of Harry Orchard. The session began with the story of the dynamiting of Fred Bradley in San Francisco, and the defense made a long and determined effort to expose several features of it to doubt, improbability and further discrediting, and to vitiate it all by revealing the hand of the Pinkertons. Then the play went back to Denver for the winter of 1904-5 and the spring following, and there was an extended effort to show that Orchard had practically no communication with the leaders of the federation; that he received no pay for the Bradley crime or anything else; that with Steve Adams, in a period of extreme poverty extending over a period of several months, he was reduced to necessity of stealing a sheep that he might have food. Orchard seriously confessed that he stole the sheep, but stoutly denied that it was because of want. He insisted that all through that supposed hard winter and spring he continued to draw money from Pettibone through Adams, and explained that if he did not see the federation leaders often it was because he was lying low to avoid capture for previous crimes.

Carrying out the lines of testimony tending to show that Orchard, regardless of the great hold which it is presumed he had on the federation leaders, was frequently without funds, the defense showed that from late in 1903 until the middle of 1904 Orchard continually drew strike relief at Cripple Creek, and then dramatically invited Orchard to explain the inconsistency to the jury. Orchard replied that Haywood, Moyer, Parker and Davis all advised him to continue drawing relief because if he displayed money he would excite suspicion.

The examination next covered a review of the earlier attempt on the life of Governor Peabody and the making of bombs to kill him, and the plots against Judges Gabbert and Goddard, with an effort everywhere to lighten and cast doubt upon the testimony of the witness. Orchard told a dramatic story of the first attempt to assassinate Peabody—an early morning drive through the snow to place the bomb and wait for the victim, who was spared by the unexpected appearance of two coal wagons that, coming from an alleyway, were driven across the trigger string at the moment that Peabody was crossing the mine field.

Orchard brought Mrs. Steve Adams into play. He said that while he and Adams were watching Judge Goddard's house Mrs. Adams went with them a couple of times as a blind to divert suspicion from them. Mrs. Adams, who had a seat among the witnesses, laughed when Orchard told the incident. Orchard, who confesses that he hesitated at no crime and took hundreds of desperate chances in those he committed, made an interesting contribution to the psychological study of his personality when he called himself a coward. He said he was too cowardly to openly kill Judge Gabbert; said that he regarded all his acts as cowardly.

The witness displayed emotion when the defense asked him if he had not deserted his Cripple Creek wife, stripping her of every nickel she had and leaving her in poverty that compelled the sale of her washbub to buy bread. Orchard's lips quivered, and with tears near, he feebly denied that he had done so, and said that federation leaders had promised to care for her in his absence.

and Church streets, and has been at the same place ever since he came to the city in 1884. From a small hand affair he has built his business up to a plant that has all modern devices that are known to the trade, and he gets his big share of the trade in this line.

The Captain is a hustler for the interests of Newark first and all the time, being a member of the Board of Trade and one of its hardest workers. The Captain enlisted for service in the civil war from New York state, in the Twenty-Eighth New York Volunteer Infantry and served until 1862, when he was wounded in action at the battle of Cedar Mountain, which incapacitated him from further service during the war. He has always been an active worker in the G. A. R. organization and has held about all the offices within the elective power of that body, and was recently honored by being elected as a trustee of the Memorial building in this city.

KAISER BOXED COUSIN'S EARS

Berlin, June 12.—The greatest sensation in court circles in years was created by the degrading and ordering out of Germany of Prince Frederick Henry, of Prussia, by the Kaiser, his cousin, because of extreme immorality. When the evidence of the prince's wrong-doing was presented to the Kaiser, he summoned his cousin to the palace. There the charges were read.

Kaiser William personally took from his relative the decorations and the orders he wore, boxed his ears and ordered him to leave Germany and never return under penalty of prison. Frederick Henry is now on his way to Egypt.

FRIGHTFUL CRIME AGAINST FATHER

Indianapolis, June 12.—Robert Jolly, aged 40, accused by the police of having murdered his daughter, Gladys, this morning by pouring carbolic acid down the child's throat, has been arrested. Anna Peters, the nursekeeper, called the police and told them that, hearing a suffling upstairs she rushed up and saw Jolly forcing a bottle in the child's mouth. Jolly was arrested later. He is apparently insane.

PROSECUTION RESTS

Plandreau, S. D., June 12.—The prosecution in the case against Mrs. Emma Kaufman, accused of the murder of her domestic, Agnes Polreis, rested this morning, and a recess was taken to give the defense time to prepare for the introduction of evidence. Doctors today swore that the wounds found on the girl's body were sufficient to cause death.

Washington, June 12.—No alarm is felt at the navy department for the safety of Secretary Metcalf, who, with a party aboard the lighthouse tender, left Jamestown yesterday to go up the river to Westover, Va., where Postmaster Meyer took the train. The Channel is narrow, necessitating slow travel. The department does not believe there has been a mishap.

SENATE EXPIRED IN WASHINGTON.

HEART DISEASE THE CAUSE

Was Prominent in Debate, and Especially Interested in the Isthmian Canal Project.

Washington, June 12.—John Tyler Morgan, for thirty years a member of the United States senate, chairman of the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals and prominent as a brigadier general in the Confederate army, died at his home here at 11:15 Tuesday night. Senator Morgan had been in bad health for a number of years, but had more or less regularly attended the sessions of congress. He suffered from angina pectoris, which was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Morgan was a Democrat, and was born in Athens, Tenn., June 20, 1824. His home in Alabama was at Salem, where the funeral will take place. Mr. Morgan had held a number of important offices beside that of senator, including membership in the Hawaiian laws commission and arbitrator on the Bering sea fisheries. His chief active interest in the senate in recent years had been in connection with the isthmian canal question. He was a persistent advocate of the Nicaragua route.

A committee from the Senate and House will accompany the remains of the late Senator John T. Morgan to his old home at Selma, Ala., where they will be interred. The funeral services will be held here Friday.

SECRETARY ROOT IGNORES RUMORS OF JAPANESE WAR

Washington, June 12.—Secretary Root positively declined to make any statement respecting the Japanese situation. This was done with the full knowledge of the uneasiness which exists in financial circles as the result of circulation of war rumors. It may be said, however, that the secretary's refusal was based solely upon his unwillingness to accord the rumors of official notice, and not upon any belief on his part that there is the least danger of war or even of a breach of the friendly relations that now exist between America and Japan.

War Scare in Wall Street.
New York, June 12.—Uneasiness in London over the relations of the United States and Japan, coupled with selling in the New York stock market for the London brokers, were contributing causes to a considerable decline in the prices of stocks. It was estimated that London brokers sold 15,000 shares in the New York market, chiefly owing to the Japanese situation. Despite assuring statements from Washington and a general disposition to regard the rumors as of no consequence, the selling pressure was applied to the market nearly all day.

PRESIDENT'S VACATION

Washington, June 12.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt left for Oyster Bay this morning. Several hundred people assembled and cheered him as the train pulled out. At Jersey City the President took a tug for Long Island City and will reach Oyster Bay at 5 o'clock. A score of clerks and secretaries accompanied the president. He will not return to Washington till October.

ABE RUEF TESTIFIES.

SAN FRANCISCO'S FIGHT ON GRAFT A BATTLE OF FINANCIERS

San Francisco, June 12.—What are the motives of the prosecution in the graft cases? Is the question of daily debate. When the investigation started it was hailed as a movement of disinterested good citizenship. In delegation for Taft. Another is that on the one side and the Southern Pacific on the other, and that the Roosevelt forces will seek credit for the "cleaning up" of San Francisco. Furthermore, it is beyond question that the local opponents of Ruef have encouraged the prosecution, so far as it has view of development, however, there has arisen in many quarters a disposition to question the motives of the prosecution. It is alleged political and financial advantage is the issue, rather than honesty and the punishment of crime.

One charge is made that Roosevelt was a prime mover in the investigation, hoping thus to strike a blow at the Southern Pacific and Hariman, and to obtain the California charge that the entire prosecution is only an incident of a war between two financial cliques—one headed by Rudolph Spreckels, and the other headed by Patrick Calhoun, as representative of Wall street interests.

So far as Roosevelt is concerned it is certain his friends will take advantage of the present situation in their fight to obtain a Taft delegation. It is easy to foresee the conflict will be between the Roosevelt-Taft forces affected the representatives of the labor union party.

As to the third allegation it is more difficult to ascertain the truth. On the side of the prosecution the most conspicuous persons are Rudolph Spreckels, who is financing the investigation and prosecution; Wm. J. Burns, the former Columbus, O. man, who has worked up the evidence, and Francis J. Heney, the prosecutor.

RAILROADS WILL TEST THE LAW OF TWO CENT FARE

Chicago, June 12.—Western railroad presidents at a conference here decided to contest the two-cent passenger laws in at least five states—Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa and Arkansas. Following this decision the passenger representatives of all western roads agreed not to grant any reduced rates for any occasion until the two-cent fight shall have been concluded. The passenger men were presented a letter written by Secretary Moseley of the interstate commerce commission to the Central Passenger association, stating that the proposed plan for putting National Educational association rates into effect is illegal, and can not be tolerated.

MRS. BURNETT WANTS DIVORCE CASE TRIED SOON AS POSSIBLE

New York, June 12.—"Let them take the case to court and prove what they can; the sooner they do it the better I shall be pleased. Sue me for divorce, indeed? Sue me, when I should have been the one to begin suit? I only fear that my patience will not last until everything is told in court, when I can prove by documentary evidence that the charges against me are based on false statements. But what I most fear is that they will not take their story to court."

Mrs. Belle Burnett, the beautiful wife of Charles Rogers Burnett, son of a wealthy family and now a town, today made this statement in connection with the suit for divorce brought by her husband in which Arthur G. Humphreys, a broker, is named as correspondent.

TEAMSTERS TO STRIKE

Chicago, June 12.—The prospect today is that the teamsters for the packers will strike Monday and that a general labor conflict will be precipitated. Teamsters in joint council today presented to the packers a demand for an increase of four cents an hour. It is believed that neither the packers nor teamsters will yield, and both sides are preparing for a conflict.

JAP AMBASSADOR POSTPONES VISIT TO THE COAST

Washington, June 12.—Mr. Miyaoka, counselor of the Japanese embassy, authorized the statement that Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, has decided to postpone his proposed visit to the Pacific coast until later in the summer. The ambassador has reached this decision, said Mr. Miyaoka, "because of the present agitation in both the American and Japanese press. If he should visit the coast at this time the newspapers would magnify the importance of his visit and might place the ambassador in the embarrassing attitude of trying to adjust, through diplomatic channels, grave diplomatic questions which do not exist."

MAJOR PENROSE GIVES TESTIMONY TO COMMITTEE

Washington, June 12.—The examination of Major Penrose, in command of the negro troops stationed at Brownsville, Tex., on Aug. 13, when that town was "shot up," and Captain Macklin of Company C, Twenty-fifth infantry, continued today the entire session of the senate committee on military affairs. They were both recalled upon the suggestion of Senator Foraker, and were asked concerning testimony of other witnesses who have recently been before the committee. They denied several important statements of witnesses tending to fix the blame for the shooting up of the town upon the negro soldiers. Major Penrose reiterated his belief that the soldiers did not do the shooting. Other officers of the Twenty-fifth infantry are in waiting and will be put on the stand during the next day or two.

BIG FIRE LOSS AT GIRARD, O. ON WEDNESDAY

EIGHT BUSINESS BLOCKS, ONE
CHURCH AND RESIDENCES DESTROYED.

HELP FROM YOUNGSTOWN

Alone Saved Entire Business District
From Destruction—Chief Was Injured.

Girard, O., June 12.—Fire early this morning caused the destruction of eight business blocks, the M. E. church and two residences and two barns, with a loss of nearly $200,000. The town had only a bucket brigade and help was sent by the Youngstown fire department which alone prevented the total destruction of the business section.

The work is supposed to be that of a firebug and the state fire marshal's office will investigate. When the Youngstown firemen arrived both sides of Liberty street, the chief business thoroughfare, was ablaze, and the Methodist church destroyed was the finest structure in town.

At the same time as the fire here a $1,000 blaze at Mineral Ridge, near here, occurred. It is also supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Chief Loller of the Youngstown department was injured.

ELEVEN LOST WHEN LAUNCH WENT DOWN

Norfolk, Va., June 12.—Eleven men of the navy, comprising six midshipmen and five seamen, who left the recovery Landing at the exposition grounds at an early hour Tuesday, in a launch of the battleship Minnesota, are missing, and it is believed that the launch with the 11 on board has gone to the bottom of Hampton Roads. The men are: Midshipmen Philip H. Field, William H. Stevenson, Franklin P. Holcomb, H. L. Holden, Henry Clay Murfin, Jr., Walter C. Ulrich; Seamen R. H. Dodson, Jesse Conn, Frank R. Plumber, Harley L. Vandorne, George W. Westphal. Murfin was a native of Ohio.

A box belonging to the fireman of the launch was found floating near here, and as the last seen of the launch was when it pulled out from the exposition pier, officers of the fleet gave up all hope of ever seeing the men. The six midshipmen, accompanied by Lieutenant D. M. Randall, came ashore in the launch of the Minnesota, which has been lying in Hampton Roads, to attend a ball on the exposition grounds. It was after midnight when the party got away on the return trip. Officers of the fleet expressed the opinion that the launch collided with some vessel, and that the boat, with its occupants, went down. An investigation has been ordered by Rear Admiral Evans.

ROOSEVELTS SEND SYMPATHY.

Washington, June 12.—Some light was cast on the loss of the launch Minnesota with six midshipmen and five sailors in Hampton Roads yesterday by a telegram from Norfolk stating that the launch on which the men were returning from shore collided with a tug towing a coal barge and the men were caught under the canvas of the launch and went to the bottom. The identity of the barge is not known, but Admiral Evans is said to be investigating with a view to arrests. He has already convened a court of inquiry. President and Mrs. Roosevelt today sent a telegram of consolation to Admiral Evans to transmit to the fleet.

RIOTS OCCUR IN CLEVELAND OVER MEAT PRICES

Cleveland, June 12.—Serious riots occurred here today following a decision of the Orthodox Jews at a mass meeting last night to eat no more meat until the prices were reduced. Crowds of men and women gathered around shops and attacked every one who made purchases from butchers. The butchers were beaten and the purchases thrown into the gutters. Wagons delivering meat were attacked, the meat spoiled by kerosene and the drivers beaten. The police were called out and partial order restored.

IN POLICE COURT.

A raid by the police department on the house of Mary Thompson was made Tuesday night and a wagon load of visitors, both black and white was hauled to the city prison.

Neighbors in the vicinity of the house have complained of the disorder time after time and the police decided to break up the practice.

One of the young men who took a philosophical view of the situation, told the court that there was nothing wrong on our of the road except that the party was doing a little singing. He said, "I dropped in to hear some of the music, and a couple of white fellows came in. They had a jug of it and tapped it, and all of a sudden everybody got happy, and then the cops came, and that's all I know about it."

Mrs. Thompson was fined $5 and costs as were the two other women there. Four of the callers were fined $1 and costs, and the "white man" who brought the liquor was assessed $5 and costs. Mary was much concerned because she had to give up $9 of her rent money which she had saved up.

John Shellenbarger, a police court regular, released from the stone pile a few days ago, was arrested on Granville street Tuesday afternoon, where he took possession of the front porch and seated himself in the porch rocker. He drew $5 and costs and the county jail. "I would rather be down to the city prison," said Shellenbarger as the sentence was passed on him.

Chief Sheridan arrested two men and a woman on the streets late on Tuesday afternoon, charging them with being drunk and disorderly. In police court they gave their names as Walter Kepner, James King and Mrs. Ed. Hathaway. The trio was enjoying the afternoon in a buggy, but their conduct did not come up to the standard required by the ordinances in such cases made and provided. Mrs. Hathaway was assessed the biggest part of a ten spot and sent to jail. The men drew the same fines and went to the stone pile.

"Oh, you're cooked for this robbery all right," said the detective. "You left a strong clew behind you."

OBSERVE FLAG DAY

Editor Advocate: Allow a reader of your paper to thank you for the patriotic interest you have taken in calling the attention of the public as to a general observance of Flag Day. This day, in particular, should be eager to observe the day as she was the first one to make an outward display of the National colors on June 14, in commemoration of the birth of Old Glory.

As proof of the fact the following article which appeared in one of our local papers under date of June 11, 1892, is herewith reproduced:

HISTORIC REMEMBRANCE

beg leave to inform the public in general that a few of her loyal and spirited citizens, stimulated by patriotic inspiration, make the above mentioned display in honor and commemoration of the American Flag, for it is just one hundred and fifteen years ago today since its adoption.

On June 14, 1777, the Third Congress, commonly called "the Old Colonial Congress," originally adopted the above named banner as the standard sheet of our country.

Congress was then in session in Philadelphia, Pa., and numbered 55 members, one of whom was the "Father of his Country"—George Washington.

Therefore, fellow-citizens, let the flag float upon this occasion, for we know of no event more deserving of remembrance than the anniversary of the tri-colors of our Republic. What better or more effective way can there be to teach patriotism ineffectually than by displaying the American Flag? Surely there can be no danger of too much of it. There is manifestly danger of too little." DIRK.

THE THIRD HOUSE.

Legislative Annex of the Special Interests in Congress.

The third house, as the lobby is sometimes called, is the legislative annex of the special interests. It is the house of special representatives, and its membership is a curious study in the widely different.

Its meeting place is the lobby and committee rooms of the nation's capitol, the hotel rotunda, the lawyer's office, the street, the banquet room, the little back room, the bar, the road house, the home, the brother—anywhere the legislator may be found and personally approached. That is the object of a lobby—personal contact with the people's representatives and the influence upon legislation worked thereby.

If legislators were perfect, there would be no lobby. If they were perfectly wise, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires "to inform" them; if perfectly honest, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires to "make it worth while"; if perfectly patriotic, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires for himself "a little personal favor"—at the people's expense. The existence of a lobby is premised on human frailty. It is present to prey on human weakness, to warp the action of the legislative body by appeal to vanity, ignorance, cupidity or fear.—Gilsen Gardner in Success Magazine.

THE WESP FARM - WEST ENDAGE, BETWEEN 9TH AND 95TH STS.

GASOLINE LAUNCH BEING BUILT BY HENRY WESP ON HIS WEST END AVENUE FARM.

New York, June 12.—Raising peas is reserved for the raising of early beets, and sugar corn on a one acre farm worth $1,000,000 and selling this product to neighbors at market price is a sufficiently rare occupation even in New York. When the plot is signed for the raising of early beets, is reserved for a shipbuilding yard the farmer becomes unique. He is Henry Wesp, who is paying the same rent for his Riverside Drive farm today, where he sows and reaps in the shadow of big apartment houses, that he did 25 years ago. Wesp has not as much ground under cultivation now as formerly. He had nearly two acres in the early days. Wesp's house is just the same as of old, a wooden story and a half structure.

EQUAL RIGHTS TO ALL.

It must be taken for granted that every Democrat would like to see another president elected who believes in the good old Jeffersonian doctrine of "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." No one but Democrats rest their political faith on that comprehensive declaration. To Republicans of today it must be incomprehensible that any political party should demand "equal rights to all," for that would abolish the tariff schedules that foster and protect the trusts; it would compel the wealthy to pay taxes according to their incomes and property; it would abolish sumptuary legislation and it implies freedom from restraint in every way that would not interfere with the welfare of others. "Special privileges to none" would abolish nearly all the legislation that the Republican party has enacted; that has fostered trusts and corporations; that benefits capital at the expense of labor; that taxes without representation; that favors subsidies; that has created sectional strife and usurped executive powers unknown to the constitution.

To Democrats all such granting of unequal rights and special privileges is a crime against the people. It has been accomplished by corrupting elections with the campaign funds contributed by those who have benefited by such special privileges.

To overthrow such corrupt system of favoritism is incentive enough to arouse every honest voter, and will certainly unite Democrats to that end. Trust high prices and increasing cost of living should lead many Republicans to join with the Democrats in reforming the tariff and other abuses that but few any longer deny as existing.

The Southern states have specially suffered from this Republican system of fostering special interests, which no doubt leads to the demand for a candidate from the South for the Democratic nomination for president.

dent. Nearly every Southern state is urging its favorite son and as the solid South is the citadel of Democracy, it cannot be gainsaid these prospective candidates are entitled to the earnest consideration of Democrats everywhere, and if it can be shown that Senator Daniel or Judge Culbertson or any other candidate that has been suggested can ante the Democratic factions he will undoubtedly receive due deliberation from the delegates to the next national convention. The generous rivalry between these candidates from the Southern states is a healthy sign that sectionalism has in a great measure been obliterated and that the prospect that the banner inscribed with "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none" will lead to victory.

There comes across the water the re-assuring report that the German government will not take serious offense if the representatives of the United States, Great Britain and other nations should engage in an academic discussion of the limitation of armaments at The Hague Peace Congress. For such a concession the delegates of the assembled nations should be duly grateful.

Cotton is still King. According to a report of the Department of Agriculture on Tuesday the condition of the cotton crop is rated at 10.5, notwithstanding a small decline in the acreage of cultivation and the unfavorable weather. The value of the exports of cotton in the last calendar year amounted to $413,000,000, while the value of the exports of breadstuffs in the same period amounted to $89,000,000. Of the world's total production of cotton last year, amounting to 18,730,000 bales, nearly 11,345,988 bales were raised in this country.

Notwithstanding the movement for Taft in Ohio and the action of the Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania, Representative Sherman, of New York, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, predicts the nomination of President Roosevelt for a third term. What gives peculiar significance to this declaration is the fact that Chairman Sherman is one of the most intimate of the inner political counselors of the President. The chairman says that while the President would not consent to the election of a New York delegation pledged to a third term, it will vote for him when nominated by some other State. Nothing is easier. A delegation of office-holders from Florida or Idaho would have only to seize the psychological moment in the midst of the wranglings of the more or less sincere adherents of Knox, Taft and other candidates to present the name of Roosevelt, and the thing would be done with the turn of a hand. But afterward?

THE POOSEPATUCK CHAPEL.

NEW YORK, June 12.—In a little chapel not much larger than a street car, descendants of the once powerful Poosepatuck Indian tribe, of Long Island, celebrated their 135th "wi-kan-da-min-na-bo" last week. The chapel is on the Poosepatuck reservation, about a mile south of the Mastic railroad station and within easy walking distance of many of the fashionable homes of Center Moriches. Its foundations are on ground sacred to the few remaining Poosepatucks, for upon that spot stood the ancient council house of the tribe, dedicated just 935 years ago, if the tribal traditions are to be trusted in such matters.

All Elks will leave the interurban station at 9:15 a. m. While transportation has been arranged for, and a most enjoyable day is in store for all who attend.

The committee has just received a message from Bro. Kirby of Streator, Ill., that he and his friend "Doc" would be with them to do several new stunts.

CLASS MEETING AT TAYLOR HALL

SPLENDID PROGRAM CARRIED OUT BY NEWARK SENIORS TUESDAY NIGHT.

Class Prophecy and Class Will Delighted the Audience—Sound Advice by Max Norpell.

The Newark High school Senior class meeting Tuesday night was a complete success. The hall was nicely decorated with pennants and the platform was occupied by the 52 graduates of Newark High school. Miss Ethel Wood opened the program with a solo which was an example of her splendid talent. This was followed by an address by Mr. Max Norpell in which he gave the best of advice to the class and voiced for them their aim to higher and better things. The class will was next read by Earl Russell, which kept the spectators in an uproar.

A piano solo was given by Prof. V. Raymond Nold which so pleased his listeners that he was made to return to the piano to satisfy their applause. A monologue entitled "A Sweet Girl Graduate" was given by Miss Audiance.

The event of the evening was the class prophecy read by Mr. Fred Fitzgerald. In this he told how each member of the class of '07 might be found in the years to come and kept the audience laughing the rest of the night.

Lastly the class, together gave a song entitled "Class of '07," and Taylor Hall rang with the sound of 52 happy voices and their feeling of separating from ones dear though the 12 years of study was decidedly felt by those listening.

The Bad Street Conditions.

The big ditching machine used by the contractors in charge of the water works construction, is now on Granville street, near Fifth. By Saturday the contractors will have all five of the streets leading from the "Five Points" excavated for the water mains. Grocer James A. Wilson is facing a serious problem. He is wondering how his customers will get to his store, which is located at the Five Points, as he will be completely surrounded by high banks of earth and yawning ditches. He is much worried as how to he will care for his Saturday rush.

The people of Newark are having an experience at this time in the matter of tearing up streets that they little dreamed about; and they do not relish the inconvenience and the injury to pavements that the condition presents.
